Nasogastric Tube Misplacement: Example 2

Narrative: The patient status post nasogastric tube insertion. Chest X-ray revealed a misplacement into the left lung with a small pneumothorax. Patient did not require a chest tube. Patient will continue to be monitored for respiratory distress.

Start Here

- Was there an event, occurrence, or situation involving the clinical care of the patient?

  - Yes
    - Did the event, occurrence, or situation relate to care provided in your medical facility?
      - Yes
        - Did the event, occurrence, or situation involve a healthcare-associated infection (HAI)?
          - No

    - No
      - Did the event, occurrence, or situation involve a pressure injury?
        - No

      - Did the event, occurrence, or situation involve patient elopement or AMA?
        - No

      - Did the event, occurrence, or situation involve suicide or self-harm?
        - No

      - Did the event, occurrence, or situation involve a restraint or seclusion?
        - No

      - Did the event, occurrence, or situation involve a transfer?
        - No

      - Was the injury the result of a complication that occurs frequently?
        - No

      - Was this patient’s risk of complication considered high?
        - No

      - Were additional healthcare services provided?
        - No

      - Would additional healthcare services be provided if options were available?
        - No

      - Were additional healthcare services provided?
        - Yes

      - Would additional healthcare services be provided, but the patient declined the services?
        - No

        This is an Incident

- No